Jesus taught using parables—simple stories intended to impart a spiritual lesson. He's so identified with this teaching style that Mark's Gospel tells us that He did not say anything to them without using a parable (Mark 4:34a). We've collected all of Jesus' parables from the synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, and Luke. With each parable, you'll discover: Where it is located in Scripture.

Right after sharing the Parable of the Two Sons, Jesus tells another story about a landowner who rented his vineyard to some farmers. When harvest came, the landowner sent servants to the tenants to collect his fruit. The tenants abused the servants (and even killed some), so the landowner decided to send his own son, assuming respect that was denied the servants would be shown to his heir.
