"Freight Train" is an American folk song written by Elizabeth Cotten in the early 20th century, and popularized during the American folk revival and British skiffle period of the 1950s and 1960s. By Cotten's own account in the 1985 BBC series Down Home, she composed Freight Train as a teenager (sometime between 1906 and 1912), inspired by the sound of the trains rolling in on the tracks near her home in North Carolina. train baby Wish it was a freight train. [Verse 2] Well every time I talk to you I hear your jealous lines I feel like I've been left abandoned on some old railway side And every time I hear your voice my water just gets cold My stoker will not stoke and my boiler will not boil. [Chorus] Wish it was a freight train baby Wish it was a diesel locomotive I'd come whistling down your track crashing in your door Wish it was a freight train baby Wish it didn't have
