The Central Coast is the coast between Monterey Bay in the north and Point Conception (in southwestern Santa Barbara County) to the south. Long inhabited by Chumash Indians, the coast was first visited by Europeans in 1542 when the Spaniard Juan Cabrillo sailed close to the shore. His successors turned the Central Coast into a bastion of colonial rule, site of California's most important missions and original provincial capital. Today, the area is among the top tier of touristic regions in the state, based on hotel occupancy figures collected by the research firm STR. And, it's exper
