Children unabashedly delight in all things Christmas. They revel in its many-faceted glory; and while decorations and gifts may bring a good deal of concupiscence to their innocent surfaces, children also easily rejoice in the holiest Reason for the season. Again, Robert Cardinal Sarah observes, “Children are marvelous! They sense the Heart of God and the mysteries of his love that meet us even in our serious sins and petty weaknesses.” They rejoice easily for the simple reason that children are more easily disposed to wonder than most grownups. For one thing, they instinctively trust. Whereas With tremendous wisdom and a warm, pragmatic eye, Mr. Juul helps us redefine the ways we look at a child's behavior and our relationship to our children and ultimately, each other. This is a book that doesn't offer easy answers or 'tricks' to help in the raising of your child. This is a book that helps you see with a child's eye, hear with a child's ear, and feel with a child's heart in ways that feel so natural and obvious, you will wonder why you haven't thought of them before. Most importantly, she sets forth a plan to help parents learn to step back and embrace their children’s failures. Hard-hitting yet warm and wise, The Gift of Failure is essential reading for parents, educators, and psychologists nationwide who want to help children succeed. 2. 11,99 US$.
